PREFACE TO THIS VOLUME.

The following Volume contains the Acts and Proceedings of all the remaining Parliaments holden during the reign of King Charles II., from the year 1670 to the year 1681; and of the two Parliaments of King James VII., holden in the years 1685 and 1686. It also includes the Proceedings of a Convention of the Estates holden in the year 1678; being the only one that was assembled during the period comprehended in this Volume.

In the compilation of this Volume, the same method has been followed as in the immediately preceding one. The Books of Parliament, collated with the original Warrants, as well as with the Sessional Publications of the Statutes, have been adopted as an authoritative text; and in an Appendix have been printed the Original Minutes of Proceedings, where these have been found, together with such other original and authentic Documents as had been excluded from the principal Record. The Minutes of Proceedings in the Parliaments of 1685 and 1686 are not preserved; but in the Parliament of 1685, the Decrees in Cases of Forfeiture for Treason have been recorded in a separate Book. These Decrees, with other relative and original Documents not entered in the Record, have also been placed in the Appendix.

THAT noe Bill be preſented to the Lords for ſtopping or rectifieing any Act or decreit paſt in the Outter-houſe untill the pairtie firſt make application to the Ordinary who heard and pronunced the ſame and if he refuiſe to hear the pairty vpon any new matter condiſcended on or incaice of doubtfullnes to report at leiſt vpon confignation of ane Amand in that caice the pairtie may give in a Bill to the Lords expreſsing his application to the Ordinar and his refuiſeall to hear and Report as ſaid is and expreſsing the ſpeciall mater which he deſireth in the proceſs and noe otherwiſe.

16. TO the effect the Lords of the Seſsion may be in bettir capacitie to diſcuſs the proceſsis which come befor them not being ovirburdeined with ſmall and inconſiderable cauſſ, that all cauſſ not exceiding the value of Two Hundreth merks ſcots be in the firſt inſtance caried on befor the inferior Judges And that noe ſummonds be raiſed vpon bill for cauſſ of leſs importance for which the Clerk of the Bills & writers to the ſignet are to be anſrable at their perrill except there be ſuch reaſouns condiſcended on in the Bill as would be ſufficient to procure ane Advocation of the cauſe from the inferior Judge in behalfe of a defender and competent inſtructions therof, And that ſuch Bills doe not paſs of courſe bot be ſpeciallie preſented and red to the Ordinarie and that the deliverance on the back therof beir Becauſe the Lords have found ſufficient ground for which the cauſe aught not in the firſt inſtance to be perſewed befor the inferior Judge ordinar bot befor the Lords Excepting alſo the Cauſſ belongeing to the members of the Colledge of Juſtice and except ſoumes due to Merchants Cuiks Vintners & others in Burgh for furniture taken off from them by ſuch as duell not within the ſhire where the furniture was taken off.

17. THAT where Cauſſ are begun befor inferior Courts noe advocations therof ſhall be paſt being of noe greater importance then as afoirſd otherwiſe then is provided by the Act of Parlia', And that the Clerk of the Bills be anſrable therfor not to preſent paſs or write vpon any ſuch Bill at his perrill.

18. THAT where Decreits are paſt befor inferior Courts & craved to be ſuſpended if the reaſouns proceid not on iniquitie bot vpon alledgeance that the Decreit was in abſence ſoe that the Craver of the Suſpenſion hath nevir appeared or hath not continowed to defend while there was noe unjuſtice done then and in that caice he ſhall be obleidged at the paſsing of the bill of ſuſpenſion to configne in the hands of the Clerk of the Bills, ſuch ſoumes for the expences of the pairtie as the paſser of the Bill ſhall appoint, according to the importance of the Cauſe and the diſtance of the partie which ſhall be given vp to the pairtie Charger if the Suſpender hath not Compeired or continowed to defend befor the inferior court as ſaid is and that imediatlie at the calling of the cauſe to be diſcuſsed when the Compearance in the decreit may appear, unles the ſuſpender improve the executions of the ſummons whervpon the decreit did proceid.

19. THAT Decreits in foro contradictorio, befor the Lords of Seſsioun be not again ſuſpended, vpon reaſouns competent to have bein proponed, or which wer repelled in the former Decreit. And to the effect it may be knowne, with the leaſt expence, what Decreits are in foro, That the Keeper of the minute booke make vp a Booke of the Decreits in foro according as the ſame ſhall each day be given in to him by the Clerks, expreſsing the names of all the defenders for whome their is Compearance; And that the Clerk of the Bills from time to time, call for and receave a double of the ſaid minute-book of Decreits in foro, And when any bill of ſuſpenſion is to be preſented by him that at his perrill he write on no Suſpenſion of any decreit in foro, contained in the ſaid booke, untill it be preſented to the whole Lords in time of Seſsion, and to thrie mett togidder in tyme of vacance, the deliverance beiring that they wer mett togidder. And where there is once Compearance for any pairty and Defences proponed, the Decreit ſhall be holdin as done in foro, and all the diſpute proponed by the Advocats ſhall be inſert therin, Albeit the advocat theraftir paſt from his Compearance; And that the firſt proteſtation ſhall not be ſuſpended, bot vpon confignation of Thirty pounds, and the ſuſpenſion therof ſhall bear that it is the Second ſuſpenſion and ſoe furth, all the Suſpenſions that ſhall be obteaned theraftir, ſhall bear that the ſame is the thrid or fourth ſuſpenſioun; and that noe ſuſpenſioun ſhall pas of the ſecond proteſtation bot in preſence of the whole Lords in tyme of Seſsion and by three of the Lords mett togidder in tyme of vacance the deliverance beiring as aforeſd: And that the Clerk of the Bills write vpon noe bill of ſuſpenſion otherwayes, as he will be anſwerable at his perrill, and that the ſecond and poſterior proteſtations ſhall be inſert in the ſaid booke, with the ſaids decreits in foro.

20. THAT where proceſses are keeped vp unreturned by the Defenders advocat longer then ſix dayes aftir the outgiving therof, which is the tyme allowed for feing of proceſsis, that vpon complaint given in to the Lords theranent, the Ordinary vpon the Bills call the Advocat who keips vp the proceſs, and fine him in thrie pounds ſcots for ilke day he hath keept up the ſame, from the time that the proceſs was required from the Advocat or his principall ſervant, perſonally at the Advocats Chamber, by way of Inſtrument vndir a Notars hand, unto the day that the Complaint was given in, and ſix pounds for every day that the proceſs ſhall be detained by him, aftir ingiving of the Complaint: And that one of the Macers be ordered to exact the fyne, vndir the paine of deprivation; And to that effect that he be warranted to exclude the Advocat out of the houſe, and not to ſuffer him to entir the outter barr, untill he make payment, and that he returne the money ſoe exacted, to the Ordinary vpon the Bills, wherof the one halfe is to be put in the poors box, and the other halfe to be payed to the pairtie purſuer if he deſire the ſame, otherwiſe that the whole be put in the Box.

21. BOT when there are moe defenders then one called in a proceſs, and ſeverall advocats compeiring for them that the Advocat who taketh vp the proceſs to ſee for the pairty principallie concerned, in whoſe houſe the ſame is appointed to be ſein ſhall be allowed onlie four dayes for ſeeing the proceſs; and incaice he doe not returne the ſame within that time that he incur the penalties contained in the former Article: And that aftir the proceſs ſhall be returned the ſame ſhall remaine in the Clerks hands ſix dayes befor it be called, dureing which time any advocat Compeiring for any other of the defenders, may ſee the proceſs in the Clerks hands, and write thervpon for whome he Compeires, and ſubſcribe the ſame, and may alſo borrow the ſame vp from the Clerk, for the ſpace of tuentie four hours, vpon his receipt & conſignation of ane Amaund, according to the importance of the Cauſe; and incaice he doe not reproduce the proceſs within the ſaid ſpace of Tuentie four houres vpon Complaint maid therof he is to loſe the Amaund and pay ſix pounds for ilke day he keips the proceſs aftir the ſaid ſpace of Tuentie four houres, and the like execution to be vſed therfor, as in the former caſe of the Defenders Advocats not returneing proceſsis, given out to them by the perſewars Advocats. And Likewayes if any Advocat dureing the ſaid ſpace of ſix dayes, be defireous to ſie the proceſs for any other pairty having intereſt, who was not called in the proceſs, that vpon production of the pairties intereſt in the Clerks hands, he be allowed to ſie in maner forſaid, he allwayes conſigning & ſubſcribeing for whome he Compears: And incaice of failzie to reproduce, being lyable as ſaid is, and that the Advocat ſhall not be heard when the Cauſe is called, if he hath neglected to ſie in maner forſaid, whither he be Compeiring for any pairty called in the proceſs or Compearing for his intereſt.

22. IN reſpect it is a great obſtruction to the diſpatche of proceſses that when Cauſſ are called, Defences ſometimes are proponed vpon writs, which being neither produced nor ſein by the purſuers Advocats, all that is ordinarlie done is to Ordaine the writs to be produced; therfor, wherevir the defenders advocat is to found any defence vpon writs, that at the returneing of the proceſs he alſo produce therwith the writs whervpon he intends to found any alledgance, and give in the defence which he founds vpon theſe writs and marke the particular clauſes of the writ whervpon he founds, otherwiſe noe reſpect is to be had to the Alledgance to be founded on theſe writs, which wer in any of the defenders advocats hands, or which, or any copie therof wer ſein by the ſaids Advocats, which the perſuers advocats ſhall be obleidged to returne within four dayes aftir they receive the ſame; otherwiſe complaint may be maid againſt them, as againſt defenders advocats for keiping vp of proceſsis. And in caſe any other writs come to their hands aftir the returneing of the proceſs vpon which they will found, that in likemaner they produce the ſame to the perſewars Advocats befor calling of the cauſe, undir the ſame certification.

23. THAT the Suſpendar at the out-giving of the Suſpenſion, produce therwith all his verifications, and that at the calling of the Cauſe, if he have keiped vp the verifications, and offer then to produce the ſame, that the Ordinary ſhall give Decreit, becaus the reaſons are not verified conditionallie: That if with the verifications, the ſuſpender produce in the Clerks hands twelve pounds ſcots two parts therof to be payed to the Charger, and the third pairt to the poor, the ſame ſhall be received, and the pairties heard thervpon, without enrolling of new; and therfor the Ordinary ſhall marke vpon the Cauſe, Decreit conditionall, to ſuch a day: and if betuixt and the ſaid day, obedience be not given, the Decreit is to be extracted.

24. That the Suspenders advocat be not allowed to propone any new reaſouns of ſuſpenſion at the Barr, which was neither lybelled nor contained in the eiked reaſouns of ſuſpenſion given out to, and ſein by, the Chargers advocats, unles therwith they conſigne in maner forſaid.

25. THAT becauſe Proceſsis are very much lengthened, by the longe runing of ordinary and incident diligence and terms for production in Reductions and improbations; ffor remeid wherof in tyme comeing, there ſhall onlie be two diligences againſt Witneſsis, one by horneing and another by Caption; and there ſhall be noe incident diligence ſuſtained vpon acts, bot where the ſame is craved and allowed at the pronunceing of the Act, and expreſsed therin, which ſhall proceid againſt the alledged havers of the writs firſt by horneing, charging them to compear and produce vpon oath, and next by Caption, in caſe they doe not compear and depone; and that there be onlie one terme for production in ſingle reductions, and two in improbations: And that the clerks inſert noe reſervations in acts for production, bot that all exceptions competent befor production, be diſcuſsed before aſsigning of termes.

27. THAT the Allowance of Advocats in time comeing, be regulate according to the quallity of the perſones who employes them, in maner following, viz that for every conſultation, Pleading thervpon, and drawing Bills vpon any Interloquitor theranent altogether, there be given at moſt to any Advocat, by Noblemen Eightein pounds, by Knights and Barrons fiftein pounds by Gentlemen and cheiff burgeſsis tuelve pounds, and by all the reſt of the people nine pounds: And that nothing be allowed for drawing Informations to be given to the Lords aftir diſpute, bot to one Advocat onlie and that the Allowance therfor be onlie the halfe of what is allowed for the conſultation.

28. THAT the pairties perſewar and defender give in with the proceſs, a Declaration vndir their hands, beiring, that as they ſhall anſwer to God, they have not given, nor ſhall give any more to any one Advocat employed by them in that proceſs, for every Conſultation comprehending as afoirſaid, then the forſaid Allowance; Which Declaration is to be given in by the defender at the Returne of the Proceſs, and by the Perſewar befor the proceſs be called, And incaice of the Clients minority, his Tutors or Curators, and incaice of his abſence, or that he hath imployed another to diſburſe the money for him the perſone foe imployed ſhall give in the forſaid declaration vpon oath which ſhall beir, that he being the onlie perſone imployed to diſburſe money to Advocats in that proceſs, he hath not given, nor ſhall give any more then as afoirſd. And in regaird theſe who are alreadie admitted Advocats have given their oathes, that they ſhall allwayes obſerve the ſaids Rates, that noe Advocat be admitted hereaftir till they give that oath.

29. AND becauſe by the act of Parlia^t, 1^{6o} vj^{xx} Tuentie one the rates of writs are ordered Conforme to ane Act of the Lords of privie councill and Lords of Seſsion, in anno One thouſand ſix hundreth and ſix, the effect wherof hath bein fruſtrate, becauſe nothing therby is provided to Clerks ſervants: And in reſpect the rates of all things are much encreaſed ſince that time; Therfor that the rates of the Clerks of Seſsion be as followeth viz for Acts, Decreits, Proteſtations and diligences there ſhall be onlie payed to the Clerk and his ſervants thrie pounds ſcots for each ſheit, written in the ſame maner as they are now accuſtomed, Conforme to a paterne ſigned by this Cõmiſsoun and keept by the Lords of Seſsion Excepting Decreits of tranſumpt, tranſferring and of regiſtration be way of Action, and Cõmiſsions wherin there is noe diſpute, for which their ſhall be payed three pounds ſcots onlie for the firſt ſheit and tuentie ſhilling ſcots for ilk one of the reſt of the ſheits, And as to other writs paſsing that office, the ſame rates be obſerved which are contained in the ſaid act of Parliament; And that the Clerks or their Servants take noe money for production of writs, or giving vp of the ſame again, minuting of diſputs, or booking of acts and Decreits all which ſhall be payed by the ſaids Extracts, bot that there be allowed to them two merks for taking a pairties oath, and one merk for every witneſsis depoſition, and thirty ſhillings ſcots for calling of every act in preſence of the Ordinary. And in regaird diverſ proceſses aftir diſpute and Interloquitors pronunced therin, either in preſentia or in the Outter houſe are tranſacted and ſetled by the Parties, ſoe that the Proceſses come not the lenth of a Decreit, or if Decreit be pronunced, the ſame is not extracted: And it being juſt and reaſo^n, that the Clerks ſhould have allowance for the paines taken by them in theſe proceſses; Therfor,

CHARLES R

My Lords & Gentlemen

As wee have by many former letters directed to preceeding Parliats and Conventions so often and so fully expresst our great confidence in the heartie loyall and sincere affections both of the representative and of the much greater part of the bodie of that our ancient Kingdome, So now wee cannot but assure yow That wee repose the same confidence in yow of this Convention Resolving that this our renewed assurance wee have of yow shall remaine on record to Poſteritie as weell as the former Theſe conventions preceeding yow did fully anſ^r our expectations And wee have good reaſon to have the ſame confidence of yow, And ỳfore We ſhall only acquaint yow with the reaſons of our calling yow together The great kyndnes Wee bear to that our ancient Kingdome hath at all tymes euclyned ws to be verie watchfull over all its concerns: And conſidering that all Kings & ſtats doe at preſent carefully ſecure ỳ^mſelves and their people by provyding ag^t all ſuch forreigne invaſions and inteſtine cõmotions as may make ỳ^m a prey to ỳ^r enemies: It is not fitt that our Kingdome ſhould only of all others remaine without defence eſpecially at a tyme when theſe dangerous feild conventicles (ſo juſtly termed in our Lawes The Rendevouz of Rebellion) doe ſtill grow in ỳ^r numbers & inſolencies; againſt all q^ch our preſent forces cannot in reaſon be thought a ſutable ſecuritie Therefore and ỳ^r wee may be the better enabled to raiſe ſome more forces for ſecuring that our Kingdome ag^t all forreign invaſions and inteſtine cõmotions and to the end they may be maintained by ſuch equall and regular wayes as may give leaſt diſſatiſfaction to our people, and to let the World ſee the unanimous affection of our people to ws. Theſe are the only reaſons of calling yow together at this tyme. And although wee have been alwayes very unwilling to lay burden upon that our Kingdome, yet wee could not neglect the giving yow this opportunitie to witnes yo^r affection to our ſervice, eſpecially in ſo dangerous a tyme, and for ſo important a cauſe. And ſeing wee are reſolved to imploy q^t yow ſhall give only for the peace and ſecuritie of that our Kingdome, wee doubt not but yow will chearfully give ſuch a ſupply as may be effectuall for the ends propoſed, ſuch as the Kingdome can bear. As to the way of raiſing this ſupply Wee know the lyke hath been done formerly both by way of taxa^n and by way of valua^n of the yearly land rents, and wee know taxation to be the ancient way, yet wee underſtand it will take ſo much tyme in collecting, that it will not anſ^r the preſent exigent Therefore wee doe earneſtly recõmend to yow to take the moſt eaſie & expedite way of raiſing money for this ſo neceſſary a work: Wee confidently expect that all ranks and conditions of men (excepting only Colledges & Hoſpitalls) will willingly contribut for the defence of the Kingdome and ỳ^r owne preſervation ag^t forreign & domeſtick enemies. This is the only buſsines yow are to doe in this Convention. We have made choice of the Duke of Lauderdale to be our Cõmiſsioner for this Convention, who hath ſo often faithfully ſerved ws in that ſtation; and not only in this, but in all other capacities, as weell for our intereſt, as for the advantage of his native countrey And ỳfore wee expect yow will give entire credite unto him whom wee ſo much truſt. He will more particularly acquaint yow of what may concern this buſsines for q^ch wee have now called yow. He will alſo tell yow how confident wee are of yow, and how readie wee ſhall be upon all occaſions to doe every thing that may be for the good of that our Kingdome whoſe intereſt ſhall ever be dear unto ws; And ſo wee cannot but be confident that after yo^r diſſolution, yow will in yo^r ſeverall ſtations give reall teſtimonies of yo^r zeale to our ſervice, to the maintenance of our government both in Church & ſtate, as it is now eſtabliſhed by law, and to the preſerving of the peace of the Kingdome, in q^ch according to every mans actions he may expect marks of our Royall favor. And ſo wee bid yow heartily fareweell. Given at our Court as Whythall the 13^th day of June 1678 and of our reigne the 30^th year

[Letter from the Kings Majestie]

HIS Majesties Commissioner produced a Letter from the Kings Majesty dated the tuelt day of July instant Directed to the Parliament, which being tuyce read was ordained to be recorded whereof the tenor follows.

CHARLES R

My Lords and Gentlemen, Our inclination to imbrace all opportunities to expres our constant cair of and affection to our ancient Kingdome, hath moved us to call yow together at this tyme To advise with us what may truly conduce to the Security and interest therof And as Wee have ever judged Our own and the interests of Our Subjects to be unseparable And such as would divyd them to be in their hearts enemies to both (experience having sufficientlie evinced that all invasions vpon or diminutions of the Rights and prerogatives of our Croune, prove fatal and destructive to the Security and propertie of our People which can onlie therby be protected) So are they then best managed and secured when provided for by Unanimous Counsells and Joynt Resolutions: And as it is one of our greatest Satisfactions that Wee have been alwayes cairfull of that Our antient Kingdom with a tendernes suteable to our great interest in it, So when Wee remember the firme and dutifull Constancie which it hath alwayes payed to the Royal line and family And that now it is your Interest alsweill as duty to adhere unto it with unshaken loyalty alsmuch as ever, We cannot doubt of your ready and zealous complyance at this time with what shall be proposed as fitt for our Service which can never be divyded from the happines of our people.

AND since some (corrupted with the rebellious principles of the last age or the blind zeall of this) have at first raised schismes and separation in the Church And afterwards frequent Rebellions against us: We cannot but expect from your prudent Consultations effectuall and adequat remedies for cureing those violent distempers at present and preventing them for the future, And that yow will not despise or connive at the smallest Appearances of these wicked and seditious principles, which (how plausibly soever they may be disguised vnder the old pretences and fallacious masks of Liberty and Religion, which are ever least minded by the most clamorous pretenders to them) Yet in the issue lead to such monstrous effects and Rebellious extravagancies as necessarily tend to the dissolution of all Government and order, And of which you cannot choose but be deeply sensible.

THIS being once effectuallie done Wee may reasonablie hope that our Government in Church and state as by law presently eftablished shall receive its due reverence and obedience, And that all Our good Subjects shall be preserved in peace tranquillity and happines for promoting these so great ends so necessary to the secureing the protestant Religion, Our authoritie and government, And the common interest of our People by your joynt advice who are so much concerned; And for emetting of such Lawes as experience hath discovered to be wanting for distribution of Justice in severall caices which have emerged since our last Parliament, Wee have called this: And as ane eminent expression of our favour to yow, Have named Our most dear and most inteirly beloved Brother James Duke of Albanie and York &c. to be Our Commissioner therin, whom Wee have found so affectionat to yow, And to whom yow have testified so much duty during his long stay amongst yow, which have enabled him so well to understand the affairs and interest of that Our ancient Kingdome: And since his interest is so unseparable from Ours, Wee shall not doubt of your ready and chearfull concurrence to render his Endeavours amongst yow successfull for Secureing Our Government and your own peace and happines. By doing whereof Yow will anshere the inteir Confidence Wee have in your prudence and Loyaltie. And so Wee bid yow heartilie farewel. Given At Our Court at Windsor-Castle the 12th day of July 1681. And of our Reigne the 33th year.

By his Majesties Command.

MAY it pleaſe your ſacred Ma^tie

The manifold sad experiences of the fatal Miſcheiffs and Calamities which attend Rebellions muſt needs in due proportion diſpoſe all yo^r Majeſties Subjects to higher meaſures of loyaltie more particularly in Us, in this your antient Kingdom being ſenſible as wee have a more ſpeciall intereſt in yo^r Majeſties ſacred perſon and family, ſo must we inevitably ſhare the more deeply in all the Inconveniences which may diſturb or ſubvert your Royal Government, And therfore As by our Allegiance We own it our duty to be obedient and loyal to your Majeſty and your laufull Airs and Succeſsors, So your Majeſties extraordinary kindnes to ſuch as have continued in their duty And your wonderful clemency by your repeated Indemnities to ſuch as have fallen from it, cannot but kindle in Us ſtrong and ardent deſires to ſerve your Majeſty with all the Courage and Alacritie of which we are capable: And to let your other Kingdoms and all the world ſie that we eſteem Our lyves and fortunes to be beſt imployed in manteining of the juſt rights and Prerogatives of your Majeſties Croune and Monarchie, The Native ſucceſsion wherof cannot be invaded without utter Subverſion of the fundamental laws of this yo^r Majeſties antient Kingdome, And this our Loyalty Wee eſteem our alone Securitie to avoid thoſe confuſions and ſlavery which diſtracted and ruined us in the laſt age And ſeemeth to threaten Us ſo apparently in this. Sir, Though ſome rebellious and deluded People have diſturbed your Majeſties Government Here, Yet their principles are ſo extravagant and ſo few perfons of any Note or Quality Are ingadged with them, That wee may juſtly hope their Crimes cannot be imputed to this kingdome, whoſe Repreſentatives in this your Majeſties Parliament will no leſs for their vindication as to what is paſt, then for their own Security for the time coming Chearfullie provyd Suteable and ſufficient remedies, All of us being very Senſible that thoſe diſtractions and diſorders would in the iſsue tend to the diſsolution not only of your Majeſties Government in Church and State As the ſame is by law eſtabliſhed, But even of all human ſociety. It is a great Satiſfaction to us to find your Majeſty ſo concerned for the proteſtant Religion Not only in your gracious letter to us But in the whole conduct of your Royal Government, And wee Shall with all Chriſtian cair and duty endeavour to conforme it so as it may become a solid and pious support to your Royall ffamily and Monarchy, and a sure fence in this diſturbed and divyded Church Against all uſurpations and diſorders of Popery and Phanaticiſme, That for the future the pretence of its inſecurity may not be made (as formerly) ane engine for carrieing on diſsloyall designes and practices. Wee offer our moſt humble and hearty thanks to yo' moſt sacred Majeſtie for calling Us together at this time to conſult joyntly the intereſt of your Majeſties Government and of your Subjects in this yo' ancient kingdom which wee truſt ſhall never be divyded: And therfore the prerogatives and juſt rights of the Monarchy are abſolutly neceſsar for the defence of our properties and liberties: So in perſuance of our oun Intereſt and for furder clearing of our duty and allegiance by poſitive laws Wee ſhall not faill to declare our humble and hearty acknowledgements of the juſt rights and prerogatives of yo' Imperiall Crowne in its juſt native and lineal courſe of deſcent, And to secure the juſt rights and liberties of yo' subjects So as may fully demonſtrat Our unalterable Reſolutions Never to depart from Our duty to your Royal ffamily And your laufull Airs and ſucceſsors to whom wee are tyed by ſo many sacred Obligations. Wee doe alſo with all humble gratitude acknowledge the grace and honour done to this Kingdom in nameing your Royall Brother to be your Majeſties high Commiſsioner in this preſent Parliament, And indeed the beholding a sone of our antient Monarchs under whom Wee and Our Anceſtors have been so long and happily governed in this Character Doeth vigorouſly awaken in Us the remembrance of Our native kyndnes and obligation, As his juſt temper and ſteddie equalitie in all our Concernes cannot but extinguiſh in us all fears or jealouſies of severitie or partiality, His intereſt being inſeparable from your Majeſties, And he being weil acquainted with all our concernes And ſo affectionat to and carefull of them, Your Majeſtie may juſtly expect from a Parliament under the conduct of such a Commiſsioner, all that can be judged neceſsary for the honor and Support of your Royall Government and authoritie, And for Securing the juſt rights and liberties of yo' Subjects And that with all the loyalty readines and ſinceritie which can be expreſt by Us. Your Ma^ties^ most humble moſt faithfull and moſt obedient Subject & Servant

Moſt dear and moſt entirely beloved Brother, Wee greet yow well. Being informed that by the 101 act of the 7th Parliament of our Royall Predeceſsor King James the first it doth clearly appear that the Shire of Kinroſse should be represented in Parliament; and that by the Records of Parliament it is evident that the same was still represented by its Commiſsioner accordingly, till almost all the Shire (being a very small one) came to belong to the Earle of Mortoune and the Lord Burleigh, who being themselves Noblemen, did in Parliament represent their own Lands; But that now Sir William Bruce of Balcaſkie having acquired the Earle of Mortouns interest (which is the farr greatest part of the Shire) and having likewise a Commiſsion from the rest of the ffreeholders thereof, doth crave that he may represent that Shire in Parliament according to former custome founded upon the said Act and Records And wee being well satisfied with the dutifull deference Shown unto us by the said Sir William in the proſecution of that his Right; It is now Our will and pleasure, And wee doe hereby Authorize and require yow to cauſe him to be enrolled and called in this present Parliament, to the effect the said Shire may enjoy its old priviledge of being represented in Parliament by its Barrons as fully as it has been at any time heretofore, and as freely and fully in all respects as any other Shire doth or may enjoy the like priviledge of being represented by a Commiſsioner in Parliament And for preventing of all questions and debates hereafter in this affaire It is our further Will and pleasure, that yow cause these presents to be Registrated in the Records of that Our Parliament, And that authentick Coppies hereof may be given to the said Sir William Bruce and such as hereafter shall happen to be elected Commiſsioners for that Shire, whenever he or any of them shall have occaſion to call for the same. ffor doing of all which, This shall be to yow and all others that may be therein concerned respectively, a Sufficient warrant And so wee bid yow heartily Farewell. And the Eſtates of Parliament now conveened having taken to conſideration how the dangers from the foirſaids Cauſes doe much encreaſe, In ſo far as ſuch as are ſeditiouſlie and rebelliouſlie inclined, doe ſtill propogate their pernicious principles, and go on from one degree of Rebellion to another; till now at laſt the horrid Villanies of murther Aſsaſination and avowed Rebellion are owned not only as things laufull, but as obligations from their Religion, to the diſhonour of God, the Scandal of Religion, the danger of his Majeſties Sacred Perſon, the overthrowing of all Government Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, and the Imminent and apparent Ruine of the Subjects lyves and fortunes: Doe therfore in a due ſenſe of their duty to God, to their Sacred Soveraigne, and to the preſervation of themſelves and their Poſteritie, Of new make a humble, unanimous, chearful, and hearty offer for themſelves and in name of and as repreſenting this his Majeſties ancient Kingdom, of a continuation of the foirſaid supplie granted by the Convention of Eſtates; And that for the space of five yeers or ten terms ſucceſsive: Beginning the firſt terms payment at the terme of Martinmes 1683. being the next Immediat term after the expyring of the laſt term of the Supplie granted by the ſaid Act of Convention being tuo moneths and ane half moneths Ceſs for each term of the ſaids ten Terms and ſo forth to continue in manner foirſaid yearly and termly during the ſaids five years: Humbly beſeeching his Majeſty Graciouſly to accept this their vnanimous offer and tender foresaid. [Letter from the Kings Majestie]

HIS Majestys Letter to the Parliament being preſented was twice read and ordained to be Recorded Wherof the tenor follows

JAMES R.

My Lords and Gentlemen

THE many experiences We have had of the Loyalty and exemplary forwardneſs of that our antient Kingdom, by their repreſentatives in Parliament aſsembled, in the Reign of our deareſt and moſt entirely beloved Brother of ever bleſsed memory, made Us deſirous to call yow at this time in the beginning of Our Reign, to give yow an opportunity not only of ſhewing your duty to Us in the ſame manner, but likewiſe of being examplary to others in your demonſtrations of affection to our perſon, and compliance with our deſires, as yow have moſt eminently been in times paſt to a degree never to be forgotten by Us, nor (we hope) to be contradicted by your future practices. That which We are at this time to propoſe unto yow, is, what is as neceſsary for your ſafety as our Service, and what has a tendency more to ſecure your own privileges and properties, then the aggrandiſing Our power and Authority (tho in it conſiſts the greateſt Security of your Rights and intereſts; thoſe never having been in danger except when the Royal power was brought too low to protect them) Which now We are reſolved to maintain in its greatest Luſter, to the end We may be the more enabled to defend and protect your Religion as eſtabliſhed by Law And your Rights and propertys (which was our deſign in calling this Parliament) againſt Phanaticall contrivances, murderers and aſsaſſins, who having no fear of God more than honor for Us, have brought yow into ſuch difficulties as only the bleſsing of God upon the ſteddie reſolutions and actings of our said deareſt Royall Brother, and thoſe employed by him, (in proſecution of the good and wholſome Laws by yow heretofore offered) could have saved yow from the moſt horrid confuſions and inevitable ruin. Nothing hes been left unattempted by thoſe wild and inhumane traitors for endeavouring to overturn your peace; and therfor We have good reaſon to hope, that nothing will be wanting in you to ſecure yourselves and Us from their outrages and violence in time coming, and to take care that such conſpirators meet with their juſt deſervings, so as others may thereby be deterred from courſes so litle agreeable to Religion, or their dutie and allegiance to Us. Theſe things We conſidered to be of so great importance to Our Royall, as well as the univerſal intereſt of that Our Kingdom, as We was fully reſolved in perſon to have propoſed the needfull remedies to you, but that things having so fallen out as renders this impoſsible for Us; We have now thought fit to ſend Our Right truſtie and Right entirely beloved Couſin and Counſellor William Duke of Queensberry to be Our Commiſsioner amongst you; of whoſe abilities and qualifications We have Reaſon to be fully satisfied, and of whoſe faithfullneſs to Us, and zeal for our intereſt we have had signal proofs in the times of Our greateſt difficulties. Him we have fully instructed in all things relating to Our service, and your own proſperity and happineſs, and therfor you are to give him intire truſt and credit as You now see We have done; from Whoſe prudence and your moſt dutifull affection to Us We have full confidence of your intire compliance and aſsiſtance in all thoſe matters wherin he is inſtructed as aforſaid. We doe therfor not only recommend unto yow, that ſuch things be done as are neceſsary in this juncture for your own peace, and the ſupport of Our Royall intereſt, [both at home & abroad, but also that you doe them so speedily as may evidence to the world, that you are still in the same manner addicted to the Royall Interest] of which we had so much experience when amongst yow, that we cannot doubt of your full and ample expreſsing the ſame on this occaſion; by which the great Concern we have in you Our antient and kindly people may still encreaſe, and you may tranſmit your Loyall actions (as examples of duty) to your poſterity. In full confidence whereof We doe aſsure you of our Royal favour and protection in all your Concernes, and so We bid yow heartily farewell. Given at Our Court at Whythall, the 28th day of March, 1685, and of Our Reign the First year.

By his Majestys command
Sic Subſcribitur DRUMMOND.

YOUR Majestys Gracious and kind remembrance of the services done by this your Antient Kingdom, to the late King Your Brother of ever Glorious memory ſhall rather raiſe in us ardent deſires to exceed whatever we have done formerly then make us conſider them as deſerving the eſteem your Majeſty is pleased to expreſs of them in Your Letter to us Dated the tuentie eight of March The death of that our Excellent Monarch is Lamented by us to all the degrees of grief that are conſiſtant with our great Joy for the Succeſsion of Your Sacred Majesty, who has not only continued, but secured the happineſs which his Wiſsom His Justice and clemency procured to us: And having the honour to be the first Parliament which meets by your Royall Authority of which We are very sensible. Your Majesty may be confident that we will offer such Laws as may best secure your Majestys sacred Person, the Royall Family and Government, and be so exemplarly loyal, as to raise your honour and Greatness to the utmost of our power which we shall ever esteem both our duty and interest. Nor shall we leave any thing undone for extirpating all phanaticisme, but especially those fanaticall Murtherers and assassins and for detecting and punishing the late conspirators whose pernicious and execrable designs did so much tend to subvert Your Majestys Government, and ruin us and all Your Majestys faithfull subjects, We can assure Your Majesty that the subjects of this Your Majestys antient Kingdom are so desireous to exceed all their predicessors in extraordinary marks of affection, and obedience to Your Majesty, that (God be praised) the only way to be popular with us, is to be eminently loyal. Your Majestys care of us when yow took us to be Your Special charge, Your wisdom in extinguishing the seeds of Rebellion and faction amongst us, Your Justice which was so great, as to be for ever exemplary, But above all, Your Majestys free and cheerfull securing to us our Religion, when you were the late King your Royal Brothers Commissioner, now again renewed, when yow are our Soveraign, are what Your Subjects here can never forget. And therfor Your Majesty may expect that we will think Your commands Sacred as your Person, and that your inclination will prevent our debates, Nor did ever any who represented our Monarchs as their Commissioners (except your Royall self) meet with greater respect, or more exact observance from a Parliament, then the Duke of Queensberry (whom yowr Majesty has so wisely chosen to Represent yow in this, and of whose eminent Loyalty, and Great abilities In all his former employments, this Nation hath seen so many proofs) shall find from

May it please your Sacred Majesty

ACT for Security of the Protestant Religion

1 OUR SOVERAIGNE LORD, With consent of the Estates of Parliament Conveened, Ratifies and confirms, all the Acts and Statuts formerly past, for the Security, Liberty & freedoom of the true Church of God, and the Protestant Religion presently professed within this Kingdom in their whole Strength and tenor, as if they were here Particularly sett doune and exprest.

A DECLARATION and offer of Duty By the Kingdom of Scotland, With ane annexation of the Excise to the Crown.

THE Estates of Parliament, now conveened by 2
His Majestys Soveraign authority, taking into their consideration, how this Nation hath continued now upwards of two thousand years in the unaltered form of Our Monarchical Government, under the uninterrupted line of one hundered and eleven Kings, whose Sacred authority and Power hath been upon all Signall occasions so owned and assisted, by Almighty God, that our Kingdom hath been protected from Conquest, Our possessions defended from Strangers, Our Civil commotions brought into wished events, Our Laws vigorously executed, Our Propertys legally fixed, and our Lives securely preferved, so that we and Our Ancestors have enjoyed those Securitys and tranquillities, which the Greater and more flourishing Kingdoms have frequently wanted, Those great blessings we owe in the first place to Divine mercy, and in Dependance on that, to the Sacred Race of our Glorious Kings, and to the solid, absolute authority wherwith they were invested by the first and fundamentall Law of our Monarchy, nor can either our Records or our experience Instance Our being deprived of those happy effects, but when a Rebellious party did by commotions and seditions invade the Kings Soveraign Authority, which was the cause of our prosperity, Yet so far hath our Primitive Constitution, and fundamental Laws prevailed against the Innovations and Seditions of turbulent men, as that these interruptions never terminated but either in the Ruine or at least the Suppression of those who at any time did rebell or rise in oppostition to Our Government. And since so many ages hath assured to Us the great advantages which flow down to all ranks of People from the happy Constitution of our Monarchy, and that all our calamities have ever arisen from seditious Invasions upon these sacred Rights; Therfor the Estates of Parliament for themselves and in name of the whole Kingdom Judge themselves obliged to Declare, and they doe declare to the World, that they abhor and detest not only the authors and actors of all preceeding Rebellions against the Soveraign, but likways all principles and positions which are contrary, or derogatory to the Kings sacred supream, absolute Power, and authority which none whither persons or collective bodies can participat of, any maner of way or upon any pretext, but in dependance on him and [by] Commission from him, And as their dutie formerly did bind them to owne and assert the Just and Legall Succession of the sacred Line as unalterable by any human Jurisdiction, So now they hold themselves on this occasion obliged for themselves, and the whole Nation represented by them in most humble and Dutifull maner to renew the Hearty and Sincere offer of their Lives and fortunes to Afsist Support, defend, and Mentain King James the Seventh, their present Glorious Monarch, and His Heirs and Lawfull Succeſsors, in the poſseſsion of their Crowns, Soveraignty Prerogatives Authority Dignity Rights and poſseſsions against all mortalls, and with all to afsure all His enemies, who shall adventure on the Disloyalty of Disobeying His Laws, or on the Impiety of invading His Rights, that such shall sooner weary of their wickedneſs, then they of their dutie, and that they firmly reſolve to Give their entire obedience to His Majesty without Reserve, and to concur against all His enemies, forraign or inteſtine, And they Solemnly Declare That as they are bound by Law so they are voluntarly and firmly reſolved that all of this Nation, betuixt sixty and sixteen, armed and provyded according to their abilities, shall be in readineſs for His Majesties Service where and as oft as it shall be His Royal pleaſure to require them.

AND since the excife of Inland and forraign Commodities Granted to King Charles the Second of ever bleſsed memory by the fourteenth act of the Parliament 1661 during all the Dayes of His Lifetime, and prorogat by the eight act of pe Parliament 1681 for fyve yeares therafter, will ſhortly terminat. And the Estates of Parliament conſidering the uſefullneſs of this Grant, to support the interest of the Crown, doe as the first evidence of their Sincerity in the forsaid tender of their dutie, Humbly and Unanimouſly offer to His Most Sacred Majesty King James the Seventh their present Monarch, and to His Lawfull Heirs and Succeſsors, in the Imperial Crown of Scotland the said excife of Inland and Forraign Commodities expreſt in the said fourteenth act of Parliament 1661 to be Collected in the manner preſcribed by the said eight act of the Parliament 1681 for ever. And His Majesty and Estates of Parliament, by the force of this act have united annexed and incorporated, and units annexes, and incorporats the same to the Crown of this Realm to remain therwith in annexed Property in all time coming, And in respect that the alteration in the method of Collecting the inland excife from what it was by the act 1661 to that preſcribed by the Eight act of Parliament 1681, will require some time to eſtablish it in collection Therfor His Majesty with consent of the Estates continues the Collection preſcribed by the fourteenth Act Parliament 1661 for the said Inland excife for six months from the first of May next allennerly.

THE Eſtates of Parliament Calling to mind the 12
many great bleſsings they have and doe enjoy, under the protection of the Royall Government and eſpecially by the many deliverances from the Rebellious Inſurrections, and deſigns of fanatical traitors, from whom they could expect no leſs then confuſion in Religion, oppreſsion in their Eſtates and cruelty againſt their perſons and families, and that the terrour of His Majeſtys forces hath been very Inſtrumental for procuring our preſent Security, But conſidering, that not only theſe enemies continues their inveterat hatred against King and People but that their frequent Diſappointments have hightned their malice to Despair, and that the preſent forces may be too few to undergoe all the fatigue which His Majeſtys Service or the protection of the country doth require, And to Demonstrat to all seditious men, that this Nation is reſolved to beſtow all they have in the Kings Service, rather then to be exposed to the least of their insults, Doe therfor for themſelves and the Nation repreſented by them make a hearty and Dutifull offer to His Majeſty of tuo hundred and Sixteen thouſand pounds yearly, payable at tuo termes viz. Whitſunday and Martimas, each year, begining at whitſunday next 1685 and so furth termly, and that over and beſide the fyve moneths ceſs already impoſed on this Kingdom by the third act of the Parliament 1681, whereby ther will be four moneths ceſs payable at each term hereafter, begining at Whitſunday next 1685, And as a further evidence of their entire affection to the Sacred perſon of His preſent Majeſty they humbly and heartily offer a Continuation and prorogation of the said four moneths ceſs termly from the said term of Whitſunday 1685 incluſive, during all the terms of His Majeſtys lifetime (which God Almighty long preſerve that being the greatest of our earthly wiſhes as it is the chief of our temporal felicity and Glory), and for the better and more ſpeedy Inbringing of payment of the said eight months ceſs, The Kings Majeſty with advice and conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, Nominats appoints and Ordains the perſons under written to be Commiſsioners within the reſpective Shyres, for ordering and uplifting of the said Eight months ceſs. viz.

THE Great Testimonies Wee have had of your Loyalty and affection to our Royal Perſone and Government at your last Seſsion (in which yow not only made ane humble offer of your duety in ample maner, and Shewed your abhorrence of the Rebellion then raiſed against us, and your Readieness on that and all other occaſions to ſtand by Us with your Lives and fortunes, but wiſely Considering how much the forces which former Parliaments had given us supplyes to maintain ſupported by your aſsistance, and bleſsed by God wer instrumental in the ending of that unnatural Rebellion) you gave us the occaſion by augmenting your ſupplies to add to our forces, and Consequently to your oun security For all which as Wee then returned you our most hearty and Royall thanks, and Considered you the examples to our other Subjects of Loyalty Duty and affection to us (as yow had been in our former difficulties) Soe it stirred up in us an ardent desire of makeing such returns unto you as might every way make you find the advantage of your faithfulneſs and duety to Us

IT is for this end that Wee have again desired to meet yow in this Seſsion

WEE have Considered the Truble that many ar putt to dayly by Proſecutions befor our Judges, or the hazard that they lye under for their acceſsion to the late Rebellions: And to show the world (even our greatest enemies themselves) that mercy is our inclination, and severity, what is by their wickedness extorted from us, Wee have sent doun to be past in your Preſence, our full and ample Indemnity for all Crymes Committed against our Royal Perſone or authority. And whilst Wee show theſe acts of mercy to the enemies of our Perſon, Croun and Royal Dignity Wee can not be unmindfull of others our innocent ſubjects, thoſe of the Roman Catholick Religion who have with the hazard of their lives and fortunes been alwayes aſsiſtant to the Crown in the worſt of Rebellions & Uſurpations, though they lay under diſcouradgements hardly to be named. Them Wee doe heartily recommend to your Care To the end that as they have given good experience of their true Loyalty and Peaceable behaviour, soe by your aſsiſtance they may have the Protectione of our Lawes, and that security under our government which others of our subjects have, Not ſuffering them to lye under obligations which their Religion can not admitt of. By doeing whereof you will give a demonstration of the duety and affection you have for us, and doe us most acceptable Service This love we expect you will show to your bretheren as you see Wee are ane indulgent father to you all

FOR these & such other matters as Wee Conceave for our ſervice and the univerſal good of the Nation Wee have ſent our Right trusty and Right entirly beloved Cousine and Councellor Alexander Earle of Morray ſecretary of state for that our ancient Kingdome our Commiſsioner to yow Believing That none will be more acceptable than one so immediatly employed & entrusted about our Perſon, of whose long and faithfull services Wee have full Experience in every one of the several Employments he hes been in, and of whose loyalty and Affection to our Perſon and ſervice, Wee are fully Convinced To him wee desire you to give entire Credit as one fully inſtructed and entrusted by Us, from whose Experience & faithfull endeavours with your loyalty Love and Duty to us We have good reaſon to expect a happy Concluſion to this seſsion, and you may aſsure your selves in general, and every one of you in Particular That Wee ſhall have both the general Concerne of the Nation and yours into our moſt Particular regaird, Which Wee shall expreſs by our Royal favor upon all Suiteable occaſiones; Soe not only Expecting your Complyance with us, but that by the manner of it you will ſhow the world your readineſs to meet our inclinations Wee bid yow most heartily farewell Given at our Court at Whitehall the 12th day of Aprile 1686 and of our Reigne the 2d year

FORASMUCH as In all weell Governd Kingdoms the mutuall confidence whiche aught to be betuixt Princes and their subjects And whiche is the true and soleid foundatione of tranquilitie and peace in the just governement of the prince and faithfull obedience of the subjects And the methods and artifices whiche evill dispoſed perſons doe fall upon to break this mutuall confidence by slanders and miſrepreſentations is provyded for by strict and poſitive laws And more Especially in this his Mãties ancient Kingdome of Scotland ther hathe been from time to time Laws made to secure concord and confidence betuixt his Mãtie and his subjects And to obviat slanders, lees, and miſsinformations And particularly by the 43 act of the 2[d] Parl: King James the 1[st] It is expreſsly statut That all Leeſing makers and tellers of them whiche may ingender discord betuixt the King and his people shall be challenged by them that power hes and tyne lyfe and goods, And whiche is conforme to that ancient statut of King Robert the first Cap: 20 of his first statuts wherby it is defended and forbidden that no man be ane inventer of narrations or of rumors by the whiche occaſsione of diſcord may arryse betuixt the King and his people And whiche acts are ratefied and confirmed by severall subſequent Laws and acts of Parliament And particularly by the 205 act Par: 14: Ja: 6 Intituled anment leeſing makers and authors of slanders And ſforasmuche as by the Common law and Law and practiq, of this kingdome theſe who are of his Mãties privie Counsell are oblidged to give true and effauld counsell in all matters concerning his Mãtie and his realme And to give his Mãtie true and Just Informatione in the concerns of his Kingdome And wherunto they are ſworne the time of their admiſsione, As also the Lords of his Mãties Exchequer are oblidged by their oathes taken by them for the due and Just administratione of their office to give his Mãtie suche advyce annent all signators to be past ther as may best conſist with his Royall bountie and under regaird to the Just interests of his subjects whoſe affectiones His Hienes hes been ever pleased to accompt his cheefest treaſure And Sicklyk all Magistrats of Borrows Royall by their offices are bound and obleidged to put his Mãties laws effectually to Executione and particularly theſe laws and acts of Parliament viz 5[th] act of the second seſsione of his Mãties first Parliament intituled ane act to be signed by all perſones in publict trust And wherby also Magistrats of Borrous are holden and obleist publictly in face of the Court to subscryve the declaratione And if they should exerce the said office before subſcryveing therof They are to be punished as uſurpers of His Mãties authority And by the Second act of the 3: seſsione of His Mãties first Parliament, All Magistrates within burghe who shall either continue in or be of new elected shall at their elections signe the declaratione, And in like maner by the Laws and acts of Parliament and particularly by the 29[th] act Par: 5 Ja: 3 By the 80 act Parl: 6 Ja: 4 by the 8 act Parl: 20 Ja: 6 Magistrats and officers of borrous royall are appointed to continue no longer then for ane year And to be yearly changed, And to be honnest subſtantious and traffequing burgeſses and that no other perſones be capable therof, And by the Common law and law and practiq of the Kingdome all Magistrats of Borrows Royall should demean themſelves in the exercife of their offices with moderatione and regaird to the conburgeſses nor should they divyde the burgeſses in factions and pairties nor sordidly indeavour their oune electione or continuance in office, And by the 86 act Parl: 3 Ja: 4 and 181 act Parl: 13 Ja: 6 It is statut and ordained that the Common good of Borrows be diſpoſed of by the advyce of the counſell and deacons of crafts for the Common effairs of the burgh Notwithſtanding wherof true it is and of veritie that the said Sir Andrew being elected proveist of the said burghe in anno

He hath contrair to the saids Laws and acts of Parliament continued himselfe in the said office hitherto And albeit for the good and weell of the said burghe neceſsar it is that the offices of Magistracie therin be conforme to the saids Laws communicat to perſones capable therof once at least in the tuo years that they may be acquaint with the affairs and concerns of the burghe And that beyond all contraverſie the honnest and faithfull administratione therof is a great burden And of loſs to perſones in their privat fortuns rather then advantage And wherin no man covets to continue without ambitious sordid deſignes yet the said Sir Andrew Notwithstanding the citizens and burgeſses did repyne therat as if his Estait and fortune hade depended upon the injoyment of this office Hathe uſed many finiſtruous methods and contryveances to fix himselfe therin, And wherin he hathe so proſpered and ſucceeded theſe ten years bygaine That it hes not been hitherto in the power of the good honnest nighbours to remove him therfrae, ffor whiche effect he hes ever endeavoured to make and keep up factions within the burghe And knowing the Deacons of Crafts make a great party in the electione It hathe been his uſuall and ordinary method when the Crafts did give in six of their oune number to have out a list of three for electione To give out three perſones wherof very often none of them are contained in the List given in And one of the three being of his oune factione and partie he is in uſe to Joyn other tuo perſons who being ordinarly beggers subſisting upon the charitie of their calling or profligat and debaushd perſons suche as the deacons of Crafts cannot choyse least it should dishonour and diſcredit their calling of neceſsitie the Electione whiche otherwayes aught to be free, of honnest and subſtantious perſons of their craft, most fall upon the perſone of whom he the said Sr Andrew hathe confidence By whiche method and artifice haveing secured to himſelfe a confiderable number of the Crafts he is still sure to carry the list and electione of Magiſtrats and Counſell as he thinks fitt And so haveing made up the Counſell of perſones who for the Major pairt he confids in, He diſpoſes of the Common good of the burghe att pleaſur And if any Members of the Counsell speak against thefe his proceedings He is in uſe by threats and minaces of imprisonment reproachfull and contumelious expreſsions suche as the calling them oppenly in Counſell Cheats, Raſkalls, villains knaves and wnworthie to sitt besyde him to deterr them from making oppoſitione to what he deſignes and contryves And albeit by the Laws and acts of Parliament before mentioned The Common good should be diſpoſed of, By Commone advyce in Counſell and the haill deacons of Crafts aught to be called theirto yet he hes been in uſe with advyce of suche of the Counſell as he hade confidence in to diſpoſe theirof without calling of the faids Crafts, And albeit the Compleiners did for feverall years sitt silent under suche abuſses yet in anno 1672 He the said Sir Andrew being promoted by his Mätie to be a Senator of the Colledge of Justice and the Compleiners and the people of the good Toune conceaveing that after his promotione to the said office he wold not endeavour to continue any longer in the magiſtracie of the burghe yet att the time of electione finding that he uſed his former artifices for continuing himſelfe ther They thought themſelves in duty oblidged by all legall procedur to oppoſe his electione, And for that effect they did protest against his electione as contraire to the Laws and acts of Parliament before mentioned annent the Continuance of perſons in Magiſtracie and particularly upon that 9th act Parl: 20 Ja: 6 wherby it is statut and ordained that only trafequing burgeſses should be Magiſtrats And feing by his promotione to be a Senator of the Colledge of Juſtice He could not be look'd upon in the order and rank of a trafequing burges nor could he (In regaird of that his promotione) attend the office of a proveist to moderat at the Counſell table becauſe for a full halfe year he behoved to attend the Seſsione And therupon att the time of his electione haveing in civill and sober maner protested for remeid of law And haveing intented proces for that effect, He for deterring the Complainers and the good people of the toun from quarrelling his election did most wickedly and falsly upon the 4th or 5th of October 1672 or on ane or uther of the dayes of the said moneth Informe his Grace his Mäties Commiſsioner and ſole Secretary To the effect his Mätie might be acquainted therwith that their was a factious protest made against his electione and that their was a tumultuous conventione of the people about the Counſell houſe and in the Parliament Court the time of the election And being challenged by some perſons preſent with him att the time why he wold give suche informatione to his Mätie annent the Inhabitants of the burghe without any ground He maliciously and preſumptuously anſered that he never raiſed the devill but he could lay him again And wherwith accordingly his Mätie was acquainted and did requyre the Lords of His privie Counſell to make strict Inquirie in the said tumult and authors and fomenters theirof And seing the Complainers and the good toun have been ever studious of obedience to his Mäties Laws And that there can be nothing more greivous to them then to be repreſented as factious seditious and tumultuary who doe humbly acknouledge that in all their deportment they aught to walk exemplarly to the reſt of the Borrous of the Kingdome And in regaird the said Sir Andrew contrary to his trust and office as a privie Counſeller and to the gratitude and obligatione that he owes the burghe did for his oune sordid and ſiniſtrous deſignes falſly informe his Mätie of the procedur of the Complainers and the Inhabitants of the Toun as factious and tumultuary without any ground or ſhaddow of truthe for the said Informatione, And what in him lay to begett a diffidence in His Mätie of the ſinceritie of his subjects affectione and obedience, And so to gender diſcord betuixt his Mätie and the inhabitants of this burghe the metropolis of this kingdome Theirfore the said Sir Andrew as he who abuſed and informed his Mätie without any ground or reaſone against his good subjects, Hes therin groſsly lyed to his Mätie and hathe Incurred the paines of the foirsaid act of Parliament And to make it further appear that the said Sir Andrew did the same meerly out of deſigne to breed in his Majestie ane evill opinione of the Compleiners and the Inhabitants of the burghe who did withstand and oppoſe his electione and not from any zeall for his Mäties ſervice, It is to be confidered 1°, That if their hade been a reall tumult as their was not the least shaddow of a tumult their needed no immediat applicatione to his Mätie to complaine theirof Becaus by the 17th act Par: 18 Ja: 6 The Magiſtrats of Royall Burrous are sufficiently impoured for ſetleing of tumults and punisheing the authors theirof, So that albeit their hade been any diſsorderliines He aught to have hade that tenderneſs and respect to the burghe by the authoritie of his place To have compeſced and puniſshed the same And should not have indevoured to Irritat his Mätie agst the good toune 2°, He aught to have applyed himſelfe to the Lord Chanceller who was then in Toune who if their hade been any of the leist pretence for a tumult wold have conveened his Mäties Counſell to have taken order theranent And wold have Commanded his Mäties forces then in the Citie to have compeſced the same

2°, Albeit be the foirsaid fyfth act of the second Seſsione and the third act Seſs. first of his Mäties first Parliament the declaratione be appointed to be signed be the Magistrats and members of the Counsell of Borrows publictly in the face of Counsell And that he the said Sir Andrew as proveist of the said burghe should not only have taken the declaratione himſelfe before he entered to the exercife of his office But also he should have been cairfull that the rest of the Magiſtrats, members of Counsell and other perſons carieing publict office should signe the same in Court Yet true it is that for the space of fyve years after the said act he exerced the office of proveist within the said burghe without taking the declaratione And when by authoritie of the Counſell he was requyred to cauſe the Magiſtrats and Counsell take the declaratione He was so farr from injoyning it to them and seeing the same signed att the Counſell table that ane paper containing the declaratione was sent to the houſes of some of the Counſellers and returned with a subſcriptione therat whiche whither the true subſcriptione of the pairtie or not is not knowne to the Magiſtrats and Counſell who aught to have seen the same publictly subt Lykas att the time of the electione at Michaelmis 1672 He the said Sir Andrew haveing procuired James Riddell to be listed and elected Counſeller He did not att the time of the Electione offer to him the foirsaid declaratione to be signed And the Lords of his Mäties privie Counſell haveing appointed some of their number to aſsist att the last electione and some of the members haveing excepted against the said James that he could not vote in regaird he hade not signed the declaratione which being offered to him he abſolutly refuised to signe Yet after he was removed off the Counſell and ane other put in his place, The said Sir Andrew in hie contempt of his Mäties Laws and of the established order for taking of the declaratione did Immediatly after the Electione by his factione and prevalencie in the Counſell procure the said James to be nominat and elected Bailyie of Leith, whiche is a place of great trust wher yet he exerces the said office And hes not signed the declaratione wherby he hes egregiously malverſed in his office to the neglect and contempt of his Majesties ſervice and executione of his Laws

3°, Albeit by feverall Laws and acts of Parliament and ſpecially be the 64 act Parl: 5 Ja: 6 The Conventione of Borrows is authorized and by perpetuall custome inviolably obſerved The borrous in time of Parliament may meet togither and have a publict place of meeting wher the Parliament sitts And when the Parliament sitts at Edr they have been in uſe to sitt in the toune Counſelhouſe as their occaſsions requyres Yet the ſaid Sir Andrew did in a meeting of the ſaid burrows upon the day of November instant in most contemptuous maner relinquishe the saids Borrows being choysen their president for the time protesting and declairing that they could not laillie sitt without him pretending that he was their heid And for further disgraceing the Conventione of Borrows He did by his power within the said burghe debarr them from sitting in their usuall place of meeting and necessitat them to meet in a publict taverne And therby did affront the body of the Borrows whiche is ane Estait of Parliament

4°, Albeit The Lords of His Mäties Exchequer are bound in duty and by their oathe de fideli to give his Mätie just and true advyce in the diſpoſeall of His Mäties caſualities Lykas his Mätie of his royall bounty and out of the affectione that he hes for his Subjects, hes been ever in uſe to diſpoſe of his caſualities so as that for inconſiderable Compoſitiones his subjects who are either interefsed as proprietars or Creditors doe frequently find his favour in remitting of thoſe just dews whiche by the Law and priviledge of the Croun he hathe right to Notwithſtanding wherof the said Sir Andrew albeit one of the Lords of his Mäties Exchequer and neither haveing interest as Creditor nor proprietar in the Lands of Knock But on the contraire haveing sold the said Estait with consent of Mr James Frafer who was heritor theirof for the time for a full pryce wherof he receaved the greatest pairt himſelfe, Did therafter procure from his Mätie a gift of recognitione of the saids Lands as come in his Mäties hands by the infeftment therof granted to himſelfe And whiche was the tytle wherby he diſponned the same and that in the name of his ſone And hade the confidence to offer the same in Exchequer intending therby to prejudge the Creditors of the said Estait And the three poor daughters The heritors haveing taken the gift without their knowledge or advyce and haveing no interest as said is And upon a competitione betuixt him and Skelmorlie who hade bought the saids Lands for a full pryce The Lords of Exchequer found it their duty to preferr Skelmorlie to the gift And appointed the foirsaid gift procured by the said Sir Andrew to be put in the hands of his Mäties Commiſsioner that the ſamen might be cancelled as being unjustly procured for the reaſones repreſented in Exchequer And therafter repreſented to his Grace The procureing of whiche Gift by a perſone who was honoured to be a member of his Mäties Exchequer And who hade soid the lands and received the pryce, was a deed against common honnestie and of great malverſatione of a perſone of his trust, OF the whiche Crymes generally and particularly above ſet doune and other malverſationes and miſdemeanors abone rehearſed The said Sir Andrew is guiltie And whiche being verefied and provein And so found by his Grace and the Estaits of Parliament He aught to be punished conforme to the Laws and acts of Parliament made theranent And Customes of the Kingdome in suche

> Theſe Articles are Given in under Protestatione that it shall be leifume to the compleiners or any others the good nighbours within the Toune to add further articles of Indytment and Complaint dureing the dependance of this proces annent all other Malverſations in his office and particular Injuries done to them dureing the same

22 May 1685

THIS day Sir John Cochran of Ochiltree Sir Patrick Home of Polwart George Pringle of Torwoodlie and the Aires of Mr Robert Martin being thryce Called both in the Parliament Houſe and at the great doore therof And none of them Compeiring His Māties Advocate tooke inſtruments therupon And the lybell againſt them being reade Hee declared hee inſiſted againſt Sir John Cochran vpon theſe two Articles of the lybell one anent his acceſsion to the Conſpiracie and plott and the vther anent his demanding money for ſupplying the late Earle of Argyle a declared Traitor and inſiſted firſt on that of the Conſpiracie And Craved the Parliament may give their interlocutor as to the Relevancie of both theſe Articles which being Conſidered and putt to the vote The Lord Commiſsioners Grace and the Eſtates of Parliament ſtand the ſaids two Articles of the lybell Relevant ſeparatim to inferre the paine of treaſone

The Advocate declared hee inſiſted alſo againſt Polwart Torwoodlie and Mr Robert Martin for their acceſsion to the Conſpiracie and plott concealing and not revealing of the ſame which being Conſidered and putt to the vott was found Relevant to inferre the paine of treaſone wherupon The Advocate tooke inſtruments.

His Māties Advocate for proving Sir John Cochrans acceſsion to the Conſpiracie did adduce Commiſsarie Monro as a witnes who was examined as his depoſition extant in proces beares And declared hee made vſe of the depoſition of Mr William Carſtaires emitted before the Lords of the ſecret Cōmittee to which he afterwards adheared before the Councell which depoſition being read, His Māties Commiſsioner, The Lord Chancellor, The Lord Tarbett, and the preſident of the ſeſsion did owne their ſubſcriptions to that depoſition and declared that Mr William Carſtaires did truelie depone as his depoſition beares And Sir William Paterſone and Mr Colin Mackeinzie Clerkes of the Councill at the Advocates defyre were examined vpon oath theranent As their depoſi-tions extant in proces beares.

His Mäties Advocate declared that for further probation Hee lykwayes made vſe of the depoſitions of Thomas Sheapherd and Zacharias Bourne taken before Sir Leonell Jenkins ſecretarie in England and by His Mäties order tranſmitted hither which were read And hee lykwayis produced the printed Roll of the fugitives of whom the ſaid Sir John is one And joyned therwith the No-torietie of the Cryme And to the effect no ſcruple may remaine with any Member of Parliament vpon that point that the depoſi-tions of Carſtaires Shepherd and Bourne were not taken or re-newed before the Parliament Hee inſtanced ſeverall caſes wherin the Parliament had ſuſtained depoſitions of witneſſes taken before the Lords of the Articles and ſometymes before the Lords of the privie Councell wherupon they have proceeded to give ſentence of forfaultor as in the caſes of the Earles of Angus Erroll, Gowrie and Logan of Leſlalrig And in ſome of theſe proceſſes writts and miſsive letters were made vſe of for probation As appeares by the Records of Parliät which were produced and read in theſe parts therof.

The probation as to the forſaid article of the lybell anent Sir John Cochrans acceſsion to the Conſpiracie being Conſidered the ſame was putt to the vote and that article of the lybell was found proven.

Therefter His Mäties Advocate for proving the vther Article of the lybell anent Sir John Cochrans demanding money for ſup-plying the late Earle of Argyle did adduce Sir John Maxwell of Pollock and Alex^{r} Cunynghame of Craigends as witneſſes who were examined.

The depoſitions of the witneſſes being Conſidered by the Par-liament and it being putt to the vote that article of the lybell was alſo found proven And His Mäties Advocate did deſyre that ſeing the lybell is found relevant and proven that the Parliament may proceede to give ſentence of forfeiture againſt Sir John Cochran.

The Archbiſhop of S^{t} Andrewes for himſelfe and In name of the reſt of the Lords of the Clergie declared that this being a Matter of lyfe They are Reſolved not to vote to the ſentence of forfeiture but to remoove out of the Houſe And proteſted that their withdrawing and not voting therin doe not prejudge them of their right and priviledge to vote as the Kings Barrones And they having remooved out of the Houſe they were Called in to take their ſeates but it was left to themſelves to give their votes or not as they thought fitt.

Therafter It was votted in Parliament that ſentence of for-faultor ſhould bee pronounced againſt the ſaid Sir John Cochran And accordingly after ſound of trumpet in the vſuall maner The ſentence and doome of forfaultor was pronounced againſt the ſaid Sir John Cochran by George Watſone dempſter and his Armes were reverſed and torne by the Lyon King at armes and his brethren heraulds In preſence of His Mäties Commiſsioner and the Parliament.

Eodem die A Meridie.

Sir Patrick Home of Polwart George Pringle of Torwoodlie and the Aires of M^{r} Robert Martin being agane thryce Called His Mäties Advocate declared that hee inſiſted in the firſt place againſt Polwart And for proving the lybell againſt him adduced James Murray of Philiphaugh Walter Scott late Earle of Tarras and Hugh Scott of Gallotheills as witneſſes And in regard the Conſpiracie was Complexed and conſiſted of many matters of fact Hee made vſe of the depoſitions which theſe witneſſes had for-merly emitted That the ſame being reade before them They might declare vpon oath if they doe adhcare therto But if any Member of Parliament for their Cleering ſhall deſyre any of the witneſſes to bee further interrogate vpon any point Hee is ſatiſfied that the ſame bee done.

The ſaids witneſſes being examined His Mäties Advocate pro-duced the letters of denunciation againſt Polwart for not Com-peirance before the Juſtice Court and repeated the ſame with the notorietie of the Cryme and his flight for adminiculating the pro-bation, And Craved that the Parliät may advyſe the probation And It being putt to the vote The lybell was found proven againſt him.

His Mäties Advocat declared hee repeated the ſame probation againſt George Pringle of Torwoodlie And It being putt to the vote the lybell was alſo found proven againſt him.

The Advocate did alſo Repeate the ſame probation againſt M^{r} Robert Martine And declared that hee made vſe of Commiſ-ſarie Monro his depoſition to prove that M^{r} Robert Martin ac-cepted a Commiſsion from the Conſpirators in England to theſe in Scotland and returned againe And Hee ſhewed that by the law of this Kingdome The Aire may bee forſaulted for the Cryme of treaſone committed by his predeceſsor as appeares by the firſt Act 6th Parliät of K James 5th which Act was reade.

The probation being Conſidered the lybell was alſo by a vote of Parliament found proven as to M^{r} Robert Martin And his Mäties Advocate having deſyred that ſeing the Parliät hes found the lybell Relevant and proven againſt Sir Patrick Home of Pol-wart George Pringle of Torwoodlie and M^{r} Robert Martin that they may proceede to give ſentence of forfaultor againſt them And it being putt to the vote ſentence of forfaultor was ordained to bee pronounced againſt the ſaids three perſones wherupon His Mäties Advocate tooke inſtruments.

DEPOSITION of Commiſsarie Monro

I was engaged in that Commiſsion concerning Carolina most innocently, & with reluctancie, as is known to ſeveralls of the undertakers. And I declare I knew of no other designe in it, bot to carry on a Scots plantation in that province, which was a thing wery ſeriouſly intended by all the undertakers with whom I hade occaſion to ſpeak concerning it. And if his Ma^{ties} letter to the Councill hade not authorized the deſigne, I hade never medled in it.

When in my journey to London I came to Ular I found Jervefwood ther, who told me that he was refolued to goe to London & did ſtay ther to get my company hearing of my com-ing. He told me the reaſon of his going that journey was to ſhun the hazard that might follow upon the ſentence ag^{t} Blackwood which he beleiued no man in ye weſt countrey could eſcape. And he found himſelf very ill ſtated with the late Chancellar

We mett w^{t} S^{r} John Cochran in Yorkſhyre whom I aſkt who that Ingliſſman was who hade bein at his houſe And he affirmed to me that he knew not, bot he beleiued he was ſome trepan to inſnare him. Neither did he at any time after tell me what he was. Nor did I ever hear his name untill his Royall Highneſs queſ-tioned me what I knew concerning M^{r} Smith who hade bein at S^{r} John Cochrans houſe, when I was called before the King & the Councill of Ingland.

Some time after our arrivall at London S^{r} John Cochran begun to tell me of great diſcontents amongſt the Ingliſh, and that they were much concerned for Argyle. At ſeverall times he talked to that purpoſe & of ane aſſociation & of petitions from the Counties to the King all which paſt as the language of that countrey

About the begining of May Rovallans & Ceſnocks elder & younger and Bruntſfeild & Crawforland & Langthaw came to London. S^r John Cochran heard of it, & told me he was going to visite them and if I would goe w^t him I might get the news from Scotland. When we came to them they told us they hade come ther, to shun the hazard they found themselues under by the sentence againſt Blackwood. And in the diſcourſe it was aſkt by ſome of them at S^r Johne if he thought that by the ſecretaries or any other way they could obtaine any releif from his Ma^tie To which S^r John anſwered that he thought it would be wery difficult.

Some weeks after My Lord Melvil & S^r John Cochran & Cefnocks elder & younger & Langſhaw & M^r William Weitch & M^r William Carſtaires & I, met at Jervefwoods chamber wher ther was much diſcourſe of the danger from Blackwoods ſentence. And they expreſt ther apprehenſions that the countrey might run together to ſave themſelues & ſo make a prefent diſturbance And it was propoſed that ſome perſon ſhould be ſent to prevent it if poſſible and to know the condition of the countrey & what they inclined to for ther owin ſafety. S^r John Cochran ſpake of money which he ſaid the Engliſh would furniſh to Argyle to buy armes to ſend to Scotland and if they would attempt any thing for ther owin releif they might get aſſiſtance of horſe from England. Bot my Lord Melvil & Cefnok elder & yo^r were altogether ag^t medling w^t the Engliſh and my Lord Melvill ſaid we never medled w^t them bot they ruined us. And I concurred w^t them & expreſt my diſlike of theſe dangerous courſes as much as I could; and they reſolued not to medle w^t the Engliſh, bot to ſend one home to know the condition of the countrey, and what the people were inclined to doe, and if they were like to run together to endeavour by all meanes to hinder it. And to let y^m know what he heard of maters in England, that they might be the more circumſpect.

M^r Robert Martin was ſent and ſome money was given him by the company to bear his charge. He was adviſed to goe to a gentleman in the ſouth whom I know not, bot I beleive his name is Pringle. I doe not know if any bodie did write w^t him. When he returned he gave accompt that ſuch as he ſpoke with promiſed to endeavour as much as they could to keep all quiet, though they thought it might be difficult enuch, for a ſmall ſparke might kindle the whole countrey. Likewiſe at his return he told he hade met w^t my Lord Tarras Polwart & Philiphaugh

Shortly after I receaued a letter from Polwart which was not ſubſcribed telling me that he beleived ther would be maney in Scotland willing to ſhew themſelues concerned for ther owin ſafety, or to that purpoſe, bot I doe not exactly remember the words.

It was before the aboue meiting, as I remember, that Shiphird came in wher I was dining at which time ther was no diſcourſe of any publict concern and I hade none at all w^t Shiphird for I knew him not untill he was gone that I aſked his name, & came to underſtand that he was a midling man & hade bein a great truſtie of Shaftſburries. Some days after he ſaluted me upon the exchange, & that day in the afternoone as I was paſſing through the exchange he mett me about the midle of it and invited me to goe w^t him to a glaſſe of good wine which he was to get w^t M^r Bailie. I was faint & ſick & would bein glade of it w^t any other, bot I refuſed him & left him abruptly. Severall days after he mett me in the ſtrand & ſtopt me in the croud, and ſaid to me the money is readie, to which I anſwered paſſing away from him, you are infatuat S^r, and I hade never more diſcourſe w^t him then as aboue.

I did never know of any money intended to be ſent to the late Argyle by Shiphird or any other, nor did I beleiue any ſuch thing though I heard it ſpoken off. Nor did I know of the late Argyles correſpondence w^t the Engliſh or w^t any Scotts man only I heard the forenamed M^r Weitch ſay that he hade a letter from him, bot I know not what was the contents of it.

If any thing more of theſe maters ſhall recurre to my memorie or can be brought to it I ſhall be readie to give ane ingenuous accompt therof Bot my memorie is truly ſo fore chattered that every thing ſlips out of it. And I hade never remembered ſome paſſages aboue receited w^tout help Bot I find as much as is mater of ſhame & ſorrow to me though I know not how I have bein inſnared into them, for I am ſure my will never conſented to any thing that I judged prejudiciall to his Matie & the Government.

I doe remember that the Lord Melvill called me one day from my lodging to goe w^t him that I might ſalute the Duke of Monmouth who being at the Lord Ruſſals houſe we went ther and after ſome diſcourſe the Lord Ruſſall ſpoke to Melvil about ſending 10000^lb to Argyle to buy armes at which Melvil laughed and ſaid they might alwell ſend ten pence and brake of the diſcourſe, & w^tin a litle left them and when he came away he ſ^d they were unhappy that medled w^t theſe people.

To the beſt of my memorie I heard S^r John Cochran ſpeak of a Manifeſto to be emitted by the Engliſh.

I heard to the beſt of memorie S^r John Cochran and Jervefwood or one or other of them talking as if they might expect Twentie thouſand men in Scotland.

being put upon it by the deponent ſtill urged that one might be ſent to the Earle of Arg: but as Mr Shepard told him He was ſuſpected upon the accompt of his urgeing ſo much yet afterwards he preſſed without the deponents knouledg that the deponent being to Go to Holland however might have ſome Comiſſion to the E of Argyle which he having informed the Deponent off, the Deponent told him that he himſelf would not be Concerned but if they would ſend another he would introduce him but nothing of this was done upon which the deponent went over without any Comiſſion from any body to Holland uher meiting with James Steuart abov named he was introduced to the E of Argyle with whom he had never befor Converſed and did ther discourse what had paſt betuixt Mr Shepard and him and particularly about remitting of money to the ſaid Earle from Ingland of which the ſaid Mr Stuart had wreaten to the Deponent namely of 30000 lib ſt and of the reaſing of 1000 horſe and Dragoons and the ſecuring the Caſtle of Edr as a matter of the Greateſt importance the method of doing this was propoſed by the Deponent to be One hour or therby after the receiving of the Guards but the E did not reliſh this propoſition as dangerous and that the Caſtle would fall of Conſequence after ther work abroad was done James Stewart was of the Deponents opinione for ſeaſing the Caſtle becaus it wold ſecure Edr the magaſines and Armes. As to the 1000 hors and dragoons My L Argyle was of opinione that without them nothing was to be Done and that if that number wer reaſed in Ingland he the ſaid Earle wold Come in to Scotland with them and that ther being ſo feu horſe and Dragoons to meit them he judged he might get the Countrie without truble having ſuch a ſtanding body for ther frends to randevous to and the ſaid Earle ſaid he Could ſhou the Deponent the Convenient places for Landing if he underſtood and as the Deponent remembers uher the ſhips Could attend: the Deponent remembers not the names of the places The Dept ſpock to the Lord Stairs but Cannot be poſitiv that he named the affair to Him but found Him ſhie but the E of Argyle told Him he thought Stairs might be Gained to them And that the E of Loudoun being a man of Good reaſon and diſobliged wold have Great influence upon the Countrie and recommended the Deponent to Major Holms with whom the Dept had ſome aquentance before and had brought over a letter from him to the E of Argyle but the Deponent had not then Communicate any thing to the ſaid Holms Jams Steuart layd doun a way of Coreſpondence by Cyphers and falſe names and ſent them ouer to Holms and the deponent for ther uſe (which Cypher and names are nou in the hands of his Maj: officers as the Dept ſuppoſes) And did deſire the Dept Earneſtly to propoſe the 30000 lib ſt abov named to the party in Ingland and did not propoſe any leſs for as the E told the Dept he had particularly Calculate the expence for Arms Ammunition &c. but James Steuart ſaid that if ſome leſs Could be had the Earle wold Content himſelf if better might not be but the Earle always ſaid that ther was nothing to be done without the body of Hors and Dragoons abov mentioned, Dureing the time of the Depts his aboad in Holland tho He had ſeveral letters from Shepard yet ther was no ſatiſfactory accompt till ſome time after the Dept parted from the E of Argyle and was waiteing for a ſhip at Rotterdame to tranſport himſelf to Ingland James Steuart urot to him that ther was hopes of the money The nixt day after the Depts Came to Ingland he mett with Sr John Cochrane who with Comiſſary Monroe and Jervaſwod was at London befor he came over and Depons that he knous not the accompt of ther conceing mor then for the perfiteing the tranſaction about Carolina, and Having aquented Sr John Cochran with the Earls demands of the thirty thouſand lib ſt and the thouſand Horſe and Dragoons Sr John Carried him to the Lord Ruffell to whom the deponent propoſed the affair but being ane abſolute ſtranger to the Deponent had no return from him at that time but afterwards having mett him accidentily at Mrs Shepards hous uher he the Lord Ruffell had Come to ſpeak to Shepard about the mony abov named as Mrs Shepard told the Depts the Depts uhen they wer done ſpeaking deſired to ſpeak to the Lord Ruffell which the Lord Ruffell did and having reiterat the former propoſition for the 30000 lib and the thouſand Hors and Dragoons he the Lrd Ruffel told the Deponent they Could not Get ſo much reaſed at the time but if they Had ten thouſand lib to begin that wold Draw people in And uhen they wer once in they wold ſoon be brought to mor but as for the thouſand hors and Dragoons he Could ſay nothing at the preſent for that behoved to be Converted upon the Borders The deponent made the ſame propoſall to Mr Ferguſon who was much concerned in the affair and zealous for the promoving of it This Mr Fergusone had in Octr or November befor as the deponent remembers in a Converſatione with the deponent in Cheapſide or the ſtreet ſome wher therabout ſaid that for the ſaveing of innocent blood it wold be neſeſſary to cutt off a feu Insinouateing the King and Duke but cannot be poſitiv whither he named them or not to which the Depts ſayd thats nork for our wild people in Scotland my Concience does not ſerve me for ſuch things after which the Depts had never any particular diſcourſe with Ferguſone as to that Mater But as to the other affair Ferguſone told the Depts that he was doing what he could to get it effectuate as particularly that he ſpocke to one Major Wyldman who is not of the Depts his acquaintance Ferguſone blamed always Sidney as Dryving Deſigns of his Own The Deponent met Tuice or thrice with The Lord Melvill Sir John Cochran Jervaſwood Comiſary Monro the tuo Ceſnocks Montgomery of Langſhaw and One Mr Veitch wher they Diſcourſed of mony to be ſent to Argyle in Order to the Carieing on the affair and tho He cannot be poſitiv the affair was named yet it was underſtood by himſelf and as he conceavs by all preſent to be for Ryſeing in Armes for rectifieing the Government Commiſſarie Monro L. Melvill and the tuo Ceſnocks ner againſt medling with the Engliſh becaus they judged them that wold talk and wold not doe But wer mor inclyned to Doe ſomething by themſelves if it could be done The L Melvill thought evry thing Hazardous and therfor the Depts Cannot ſay he was poſitiv in any thing but was moſt inclined to hav the D of Monmouth to lead them in Scotland of which no particular Method was layd doun Jervaſwood the Depts and Mr Veatch uer for takeing the mony At One of thes Meitings it was reſolved that Mr Martine late Clerke of the Juſtice Court ſhould be ſent to Scotland to deſire ther frends to Hinder the Countrie from ryſeing or takeing rath reſolutions upon the accompt of the Counceil till they ſhould ſee hou maters went in Ingland The ſd Martin did Go at the Charges of the Gentlemen of the Meiting and was directed to the Laird of Poluort and Torwoodlie who ſent back word that it wold not be found ſo eaſy a mater to get the Gentrie of Scotland to Concurr. But afterwards in a letter to Comiſſary Monro Poluort wrott that the Countrie was readyer to Concurr then they had imagined or ſomething to that purpoſe The Deponent as abov ſaid Having brought over a Key from Holland to ſerve himſelf and Major Holms He remembers not that ever he had Ane exact Copie of it but that ſometimes the One ſometimes the other keiped it and ſo it Chanſed to be in his Cuſtody uhen a letter from the E Arg: Came to Major Holms intimateing that he wold joyne with the D of Monmouth and follou his Meaſurs or obey his Directions This Mr Veatch thought fitt to Communicate to the D of Mon. and for the underſtanding of it was brought to the Depts and he gav the Key to Mr Veatch uho as the Depts was informed was to giv it and the letter to Ferguſone and He to ſhou it to the D of Mon. But what was done in it the Depts knous not The Depts heard the Deſigne of Killing the King and Duke from Mr Shepard uho told the Depts ſome wer hott upon it. The Depts Heard that Aron Smith was ſent by thos in Ingland to Call Sr John Cochrane on the Accompt of Carolina but that he does not kno Aron Smith nor any mor of that Mater not being Concerned in it Shepard named yong Hambden frequently as Concerned in this Mater

DEPOSITION of the Earle of Tarras before his Mäties Commiſsioner, &c.

IN May (I think it was) 1683 I gott a letter from Torwoodly defiring me to dinner next day, I returned him anſwer by word I ſhould obey his letter, wch all he defired I ſhould bring pe money left wt me by a friend, Next day when I came to his houſe I found Philiphaugh wt him about the Gates, when I lighted I aſked Torwoodly what Commands he had for me, he ſaid there was a friend defired to ſee me (whither it was him or Philiphaugh named Mr Mertin I remember not) bot after I aſked Philiphaugh for what Mr Mertin was come their he anſwered me, he belived to move us in Scotland to a Rebellion by joyning wt them in England, & My anſwer was, I would look ere I lape, ſuch ane affair was not to be medled wt.

Within a litle Mr Mertin came to pe hall & ſhortly after Torwoodly defired me up ſtairs & Mertin followed, who gave me a letter derected to my Wife which I read, it was a litle piece of paper of three or four lines defireing pe money left might be given to pe bearer who would take cair to tranſmitt it to him, I told Mr Mertin tho it was not ſubſcrived I took pe hand to be Jervefwoods, & told him Torwoodly had written to me to bring this Money & it was heir he defired me to give it to Torwoodly, which I cauſed doe when I went down wher Philiphaugh was with him.

Mertin & I took ſome turnes in the Chamber, I aſked him how friends and acquentances did and what news at London, he ſd things were in great diſorder & likely to come to a hight, pt the Contry party were Conſidering on Methods how to ſecure the Proteſtant Religion in Caſe it ſhould be in hazard, I aſked what way, he ſd by the Kings Calling a Parleament, & if the King would not call a Parleament they were thinking of aſſoſiating themſelves, he ſd things were not concerted yett above bot they would be ſhortly, I aſked by whome, he ſaid by the Contry party their & the Scots men their, he told me pt Argille was to gett 10000 lib wheras 30000 lib was fought be the Scots men at London, & it was to be ſent to Holland pt he might provid Armes &c. to Land in the Weſt Highlands & a friend of mine was to goe over wt it, Jervefwood he named. This paſſed betwine Mr Mertin & me before dinner, He had in his hand the tyme he walked wt me I remember a litle bite of paper not over 4 or 5 inches long & not above two broad ꝑ he lookt on now & then. And after diner Philiphaugh, Torwoodly, Mr Mertin & I being preſent altogether, Torwoodly ſpoak firſt, ſaying ꝑ Mr Mertin was lately come from London, & he had been giveing him ſome account of things paſſing their, That which was ſpoak amongſt us was, Mr Mertin upon ſuppoſition ꝑ in England if they ſhould be reſolved to doe ſomething for the ſecuring of ꝑe Proteſtant intereſt what aſſiſtance might they expect from Scotland, And if it were not fitt in ꝑt caſe to ſeaſe ſome of the Officers of State, and to ſurpriſe Berwick & Sterlin, and to ſeaſe ſome of ꝑe Horſes & Armes then in the South, And if it were not fitt to have a ſetled Correſpondence wt England ꝑ if poſſible ꝑe buſineſe might be tryſted to a day in both Kingdomes; This Correſpondence was Judged not fitt & not practicable, & tryſting to a day likewiſe not to be done & of dangerouſe Conſequence to Scotland. The ſurpriſing of ꝑe Officers of State & Berwick & Sterlin were rejected as bloodly actions and inconſiſtient wt the Proteſtant Religion & defencive Armes. And ꝑ England had many tymes made a great noiſe of ſuch deſignes & all which had evaniſht and ſoe it might prove ſtill, Argills comeing to ꝑe Weſt was ſpoaken of at Torwoodly, & Mr Mertin ſtt ꝑt all ꝑe Scotsmen at London would come down ſoe ſoon as things were concerted their, nameing Sr John Cochran Jervefwood & Conſtr Monro to act or doe hier conforme to ꝑe reſolutions their, the which he ſaid to me before.

After this Torwoodly deſired me to goe to Gallaſhiells ꝑ night, where he ſd Polwart would be, & told me ꝑ he & Mr Mertin had been withe Polwart the day before: Philiphaugh & I went to Gallaſhiells ꝑ night, where Polwart came, Gallaſhiells, Philiphaugh, Polwart & I being together, after ſupper the ſame diſcourſe was talked again a litle more freely, bot all the overtures above written were ſtill rejected, and the Company declaired they would not undertake any ſuch deſigne, at leſt till they were fully informed what thoſe in England projected, & what Methods they reſolved to follow, & who was to be ꝑe Ringleaders. It was ſaid be ſome they belived the Duke of Monmouth would medle wt noe ſuch thing dureing the Kings life, and ꝑ it might be bot ꝑe Commonwealth party, & it was ꝑe opinion of ꝑe Company, at leſt declaired by moſt part ꝑ they would not concure if any deſigne were againſt the Kings perſone or Monarchy in theſe Kingdomes, it was ſd by Polwart he did not ſuſpect they would have any ſuch deſigne, for he heard it was ꝑe opinion of many of ꝑ party in England ꝑ if once they were together in a Body, the King would hear ꝑm and be induced to call a Parlement, & ſuffer them to proceſe the Duke for Popery, & alledged acceſsion to ꝑe Plot, ſoe nothing concluded, bot a new meeting appointed one Midſummer day, which was not to my Knowledge, bot ꝑ we ſhould keep up ꝑ termes Ceſse till after ꝑe terme of payment, & likewiſe ꝑ every one ſhould be inquiring inderectly, att perſones whom they confided in, what armes there was in ꝑe Contry, & what men affected to ꝑ intereſt w'out propoſing particulars to ꝑm, likewiſe it was talked in ſuch a Caſe all ꝑ could be done in ꝑe South (in caſe they were ſatiſfied wt Englands deſigne & reſolutions) was that they ſhould draw together till they became able to daill wt ſtragling parties, & then march toward the borders & joyne thoſe of the Engliſh ſide, & ꝑ it would be fitt to have Officers their tryſted, ꝑ it was moved to ꝑe Company to ſee what horſe & dragons were in the Contry, & where they graiſed abroad ꝑ in Caſe of ſuch a reſolution their horſes might be feaſed on, and then it would be the fitteſt tyme for Argill to come over to ꝑe Weſt highlands.

Philiphaugh came to my houſe ſome tym after & told me of a ſigne and a word was amongſt theſe Gentlemen, the opening and putting in again of a button, & the word Harmony, I aſked who gave him ꝑ he ſd Torwoodly.

Att thire meetings at Torwoodly & Gallaſhiells it was moved to whom we ſhould ſpeak inderectly of this affaire, there were ſeverall named, ſome to be ſpoak to upon ſuppoſition only & others to be lett alone till ꝑe puſh, Torwoodly was to acquent ane indulged or outed Miniſter in the Weſt, I know not his name, who might be truſted to try ſome about him; Polwart to acquent ſome about him and in Eaſt Lothian, Gallaſhiells his Towne & about, Philiphaugh & I about us.

Jervefwood deſired me ſome tyme laſt winter or the begining of the ſpring to acquent Torwoodlie ꝑ Mr Wm Vetch in Northumberland was too openly up & down & deſired ꝑ Torwoodly might acquent him ſoe much ꝑ he keep himſelf more privat elſe they might gett a bite of him, for he heard or feared ſome deſigned it, which Torwoodly ſometyme after told me he had immediatly done upon the advertiſement.

When Torwoodly had gotten ꝑ money of Jervefwoods before ſpoaken off from my ſervant he layd it by and aſked me if it was in Engliſh money, I ſaid it was the ſame I ſuppoſed he had left at my houſe, he ſaid it was noe matter he would ſend it to Will: Vetch who would have a cair to gett Engliſh money for him.

I aſked Polwart (whither at Gallaſhiells or where I doe not exactly remember) why he had not been Choſen Comiſsr for the laſt Parleament, his anſwer was he was ſatiſfied he was not, for if he had he ſaid he would have objected againſt ꝑe Dukes ſitting their as ꝑe Kings Comiſsr becauſe he was a Papiſt.

When I went to meet ꝑe Chanc: & Theſaur: when they came together from London laſt tyme ſave once, I came back & ſome other Company be Polwarts houſe, & he aſked me qt news, I ſd I heard Mr Mertin was dead in Holland, he anſwered he was more affraid of another then of him whom I would not think, who it was I did not aſk nor doe not know.

In Auguſt thereafter (I think it was) at Jedbrugh Race or begining of Sept, Polwart & I talking together ere we went out, he ſd to me ꝑ ere long I might find ꝑt a Lieut. of horſe would be better nor any Barron & a Capt. better nor any Lord in ꝑe Contry, My anſwer was, I thought ꝑ was not the Lords intereſt or to this purpoſe.

I heard from Gallaſhiells or his Lady at their own houſe (ſome tyme agoe) for they were both preſent, that they had heard Argille went through their Towne when he made his eſcape out of priſone, & ꝑ they heard he was furniſhed wt horſes at Torwoodly, & ꝑ at ꝑe tyme Argille paſſed, Gallaſhiells himſelf was not at home.

The day before the Lords of ꝑe Circuit came to Jedbrugh Sr Wm Scott younger came to my houſe, I lott ſome thing fall to him of theſe affaires of England, & ꝑ it might be ſuppoſed things would come to ſome Criſis ere long, deſired him to keep it to himſelf till further, the next day news came of ꝑe diſcovery of the Plot in England, ꝑ night Torwoodly came to my houſe to meet ꝑe Lords of ꝑe Circuit next day Sr Wm & he lay together, I ſatt wt ꝑm a litle in their Chamber ere they went to bed, & ſome litle talk was of England bot noe more then what paſſed about ꝑ tyme in the ſtreets, being unwell I left them very ſoon ꝑ night, & they went away tymly next morning to meet the Lords.

MINUTES in the Articles against the Lord Melville and Montgomery of Langshaw and Cesnocks depositione

5th June 1685 IN presence of His Mäties Commissioner and the Lords of the Articles

HIS Mäties Advocate having defyred that the Lord Melvill and David Montgomery of Langthaw who are endyted before the Parliät as guilty of treasone might bee called And they being both called thryce at the doore and none of them Compeiring His Mäties Advocate declared hee insisted againſt the Lord Melvill vpon these two articles of the lybell separatim viz firſt anent his correſponding and tampering with the Rebells when they were actually in Rebellion at Bothwell bridge and sending meſsages to them in maner lybelled and secondly anent his accesion to the Conſpiracie And being airt & part therof in concealing and not revealing of the ſame.

The Lords of the Articles having heard and Conſidered the lybell againſt the Lord Melvill with the declaration of His Mäties Advocate It is their opinion that the lybell is relevant ſeparatim in maner insisted on by the Lord Advocate to inferre the paine of treaſone.

His Mäties Advocate declared hee insisted againſt David Montgomerie of Langthaw for his accesion to the Conſpiracie

The Lords of the Articles having Conſidered the lybell againſt the ſaid David Montgomerie of Langthaw It is their opinion that the ſame is relevant to inferre the paine of treaſone.

His Mäties Advocate for proving that Article of the lybell anent the Lord Melvill his correſponding & tampering with the Rebells did adduce the witneſses after named viz John Millar in Waterſhaugh Robert Flemyng late of Auchinſin and William Hamilton of Wiſhaw who were examined as their depoſitions beares And hee declared hee made vſe for probation alſo of the depoſition of [John] Lockhart of Barre who was examined by the Lords of the Committee appoynted to examine the witneſses be way of precognition And which Lockhart of Barre having gone out of Towne yeſterday hee could not bee had now to renew his depoſition before His Mäties Commisſioner and the Lords of the Articles.

The Advocate for proving the vther Article of the lybell anent the Lord Melvill's acceſsion to the Conſpiracie did adduce Commisſarie Monro who being examined did Adheare to his depoſition hee had formerly given before the ſecret Committee And hee declared Hee made vſe of Mr William Carſtaires his depoſition alſo for probation which was formerly ſuſtained in the proces againſt Sir John Cochran That depoſition having been firſt emitted by him before the ſecret Committee and therefter adheared to by him before His Mäties privie Councill wheranent the Clerkis of Councill being examined have deponed that this depoſition of Mr Carſtaires now produced was the very individuall paper containing his depoſition which hee owned & ſubſcryved before His Mäties privie Councill. The Advocate did lykwayis declare that hee made vſe of Mr Weſtes depoſition for probation againſt the Lord Melvill which was emitted by him before the Parliament And for further adminiculating of the probation produced the letters of denunciation and executions therof againſt the Lord Melvill for the ſame Cryme before the Juſtice Court And His Mäties declaration concerning the Conſpiracie wherin the Lord Melvill is named as one of the Conſpirators And Hee joyned therwith the notorietie of the fact and the Lord Melvills flight from Juſtice And the Advocate Craved that they may advyſe the probation as to both the ſaids Articles of the lybell and may vote the ſame ſeparately.

The Lords of the Articles having Conſidered the probation adduced for proving the Lord Melvills correſponding and tampering with the Rebells It is their opinion that the ſame is proven And having Conſidered the probation anent his accesion to the Conſpiracie It is their opinion that the ſame is alſo proven.

His Mäties Advocate repeitted the ſame probation againſt David Montgomery of Langthaw And accordingly Alexr Monro was called and examined as his depoſition beares And the Advocate did alſo repeitt the depoſition of Mr William Carſtaires as to him And joyned therwith that Langthaw was Cited before the Parliät and yet hes not Compeired.

The Lords of the Articles having Conſidered the depoſitions of the witneſses adduced for proving the lybell againſt David Montgomery of Langthaw It is their opinion that the lybell bearing that the ſaid David Montgomery of Langthaw had acceſsion to the Conſpiracie and was Airt & part therof by his Concealing & not revealing of the ſame is ſufficiently proven.

12 June 1685.

There was a petitione given in by the Lady Melvill repreſenting that as to ye article of the lybell agt her huſband anent his Correſponding with the Rebells and ſending meſsages to them what hee did therin Hee did by warrand from the Duke of Monmouth who had ane ample Commisſion from His Majeſtie vnder the great ſeall And there was produced therwith a Coppie of the ſaid Commisſion and a declaration vnder the Duke of Monmouth his hand bearing that the Lord Melvill had his warrand for what hee did in that Matter.

His Mäties Advocate anſwered that the deſyre of the petitione ought to be refuſed in regard The Lord Melvill is not Compeiring nor any defence proponed for him, And therfore no petitione can bee receaved in his behalfe. 2°, the forfaid declaration vnder the Duke of Monmouths hand is impetrate ex poſt facto and ſo cannot bee reſpected and it is not upon oath.

The Lords of the Articles In regard the Lord Melvill is not Compeiring Refuſes the defyre of the petitione

13 June 1685.
